CURRENCY REFORM MAY BE PROPOSED

Wilson Will Have a Hard Task Restricting Congress to the Tariff.

ALASKAN LEGISLATION ALSO

Representative Glass Says Currency Measure May Be Perfected by House—Champ Clark Urges An Appointment

Washington, March 10.—President Wilson may find a harder task before him than Democratic leaders expected, to carry out the plan of restricting Congress to the consideration of the tariff alone at the special session announced for April 1st. Although the special session still is three weeks off, the President heard urgent pleas today in behalf of two subjects which Democrats of influence believe should be taken up and disposed of as soon as possible. Representative Glass, prospective chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, urged the necessity for immediate consideration of currency reform, and former State Chairman Heifner, of Washington, asked the President to consider a recommendation for the immediate enactment of legislation looking to the development of Alaska. Mr. Glass left the White House convinced a currency measure might be partly perfected at the special session, though hardly likely to be passed.

Mr. Heifner was assured of a further hearing at which Senators and members of the House interested in Alaska will have an extended hearing. Their efforts will be directed toward having the President support a plan proposed by the Alaskan Railway Commission for the construction of several railways designed to open the coal fields of that territory.

Assurance came from Senate leaders late today, however, that the tariff-only programme could be carried through successfully in that branch of Congress. Any bitterness which may have developed as a result of the recent Senate caucuses, the President was told, will not interefer with a strict adherence to a policy of tariff revision and that alone. Progressive Republicans, not approached as yet by Democratic leaders, are expected to fall in line with the dominant party. The President will not face the condition which confronted Mr. Taft when he called the special Canadian reciprocity session and saw it grind out bills on all sorts of subjects which had nothing to do with the tariff.

"The President's proclamation calling Congress in special session probably will be written later in the week. In it, or in his message to Congress after it convenes, he is expected to point out the need for tariff revision, referring, if at all, only in a brief way to other matters. Mr. Wilson's intention to see Senators and members of the House who call to press the claims of constituents for office was shown today when Senator Stone, of Missouri, and Speaker Clark called to urge the appointment of Alexander M. Dockery, former Governor of Missouri, as third assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Dockery's name was sent to the Senate two hours later.

The President had before him to day the question of whether he should consent to the appointment of a relative to public office. On Saturday, when Captain Alfred Wilson, of Portland, Oregon, a second cousin of the President, was suggested to the Secretary of War for a member of the Philippine Commission, Mr. Garrison consulted the President and found him disinclined to appoint any relatives to office. A delegation of Westerners, however, talked again today to Secretary Garrison in the interest of Captain Wilson and the secretary told them he would have no objection to the appointment of Captain Wilson if the President were willing.

Later the delegation called on the President in behalf of Captain Wilson. The President promised to consider the recommendations.

Secretary Garrison, after a talk today with the President, declared Mr. Wilson agreed with him that the personnel of the department ought not to be disturbed for several weeks at least.

After four strenuous days in which his conferences with Democratic leaders frequently were interrupted by handshakers, President Wilson today decided that hereafter he will make appointments only after 11 o'clock in the morning or for the East room in the afternoon. He plans to come to the executive office about 9 A. M. and first devote two full uninterrupted hours to correspondence and other important business of the day.

Members of his cabinet and persons for whom he sends will not be subject to the new rule, but all others will. On cabinet days the President will see his visitors before 11 o'clock, the hour of meeting.

Vice President Marshall paid his first visit to the President at the White House offices today. The impression at the White House is that the Vice President will not attend cabinet meetings until Congress goes into session.

Dr. Beverly T. Galloway, chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, was persistently mentioned foday as candidate for assistant secretary of the Department of Agriculture. Dr. Galloway has been in the department more than 25 years. His friends declared his nomination probably would go to the Senate tomorrow.

POLICE NAB SUFFRAGET[illegible]

Militant Ones Try to Break Through Cordon of Troops and Present Petition to King George—Procession Nervous

London, March 10.—Fears that the militant suffragists might annoy King George and Queen Mary and create a disturbance made the royal opening of Parliament and the procession from the palace today an occasion charged with nervousness. Nor were such anticipations groundless.

Five women attempted to break through the cordon of troops while the royal procession was traversing St. James' Park, with the intention of throwing petitions into the state coach.

They carried the petitions in rolls tied with the suffragette colors and brandished them enthusiastically.

It is doubtful, however, if the King and Queen saw the performance. The police pounced upon the women before they could get through the line of soldiers and led them to jail, an enormous jeering crowd following in their wake.

In their petition to His Majesty the suffragists declared that law and order could not be re-established in the realm until women had been given the vote.

The five women arrested gave their names as Lillian Wilcox, Dorothy Smith, Kathleen Paget, Gertrude Vaughan and Grace Stuart. They were charged with interfering with the police. Miss Vaughan described herself as an authoress and Miss Stuart said she was an actress.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, addressing a large meeting of militant suffragists this evening, said it was not the intention of the women to insult the King, but that they intended to use their constitutional right of petitioning His Majesty.

Two other suffragettes were arrested in the vicinity of Marlboro House, and escaped rough handling only through the energetic efforts of the police. Shouts of "duck them;" "into the lake with them," brought together a mob of 3,000 all bent on taking the women from the hands of the police. An extract from the petition which the suffragettes tried to present to His Majesty says:

"If law and order are to be re-established in this realm, women must have the vote. Votes for women is the only cure for militancy."

King George opened the third session of the present Parliament in the House of Peers, after the procession from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall. Drizzling rain fell throughout the day, but this had no effect upon the tens of thousands of sightseers.

The King's speech was devoted chiefly to the Balkan War, expressing the earnest desire of the European powers to hasten the conclusion of peace. He said:

"I am hopeful that the consultations between the powers will enable them not only to secure a complete understanding among themselves, but to exercise a beneficient influence in hastening the conclusion of the war."

The forecast of legislation to be introduced was restricted to narrow limits. Apart from the introduction again of the Home Rule and the Welch disestablishment bills, the only important measures will be bills to facilitate land purchase in Ireland, the guarantee of a Sudan loan for the development of cotton growing, to prevent plural voting at elections and a measure for the development of a National system of education.

Campaign of Arson

London, March 10.—Militant suffragettes today started another campaign of arson. Early this morning they set fire to the Saunderton station of the Great Western Railway and burned it to the ground. Saunderton is about 31 miles from London.

Two placards were found in the vicinity, on which were painted the words "burning to get the vote," and "votes for women."

Another station, Crowdly Green, about three miles from London and on the London and Northwestern, also was burned down this morning, but the cause of the fire has not been ascertained.

PRESIDENT MEETS DIPLOMATIC CORPS

CEREMONY QUIET AND SIMPLE

Secretary Bryan Also Introduced to Diplomats — Recommendations for Various Foreign Posts Made to President

Washington, March 10. — While President Wilson already has dispensed with some of the formalities which hitherto have been observed by occupants of the White House, he demonstrated today that he would observe to the letter the international amenities of his office.

Probably the most formal ceremony in which Mr. Wilson ever has participated was his presentation today to the diplomatic corps accredited to Washington by the civilized nations of the globe. In a semi-circle of brilliant color, their uniforms gilded profusely with the insignia of their rank, 146 foreign representatives stood in impressive silence while the new President and Secretary of State Bryan entered through the big doors of the East room. The President and Secretary Bryan wore the conventional frock suits of formal occasion in America. The President, was accompanied by his chief aide, Colonel Spencer Corby, and his personal aide, Major Thomas L. Rhoades, both of them in the full dress uniform of the American army. On each side of the entrance six White House aides, three from the Army and three from the Navy, stood at attention.

In groups of six and eight the diplomats and their staffs were arranged. Chanler Hale, third assistant Secretary of State, presented the President, first to Ambassador Jusserand of France, dean of the diplomatic corps. Secretary Bryan was presented with similar ceremony. To each diplomat the President spoke a word of greeting, but the ceremony throughout was quiet and formal.

After the President had met individually the circle of diplomats he addressed them briefly, expressing the hope for the continuance of amicable relations between this nation and their respective countries, and indulging the wish that their service in Washington might be personally enjoyable.

On Wednesday afternoon the diplomatic corps will be entertained at tea at the White House, with members of their families, when Mrs. Wilson and the three Wilson daughters will be presented.

Recommendations for various diplomatic appointments came today to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. Thomas Nelson Page was urged as ambassador to Germany, while Joseph E. Willard was presented for minister to Belgium; William Gonzales, of Columbia, S. C., for minister to Cuba; P. A. Stovall, of Savannah, Ga., for minister to Switzerland, and Governor McMillin, of Tennessee, for ambassador to Mexico.

Benton McMillan, former Governor of Tennessee and former Representative in Congress, was brought out today as a likely selection for ambassador to Mexico in succession to Henry Lane Wilson.

Mr. McMillan is in the city. It is said he declined a European post.

ARBITRATORS MEET

Hearing of Dispute Between Railroads and Firemen Begun

New York, March 10.—Arbitration of the differences between 54 Eastern railroads and their 35,000 firemen was begun here today before the board of arbitration chosen under the Erdman Act. The board, which consists of William L. Chambers, of Washington, chairman and neutral member; W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania lines East, representing the railroads, and Albert Phillips, third vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, has until April 2nd to take testimony and reach a decision.

W. S. Carter, president of the firemen's organization, opened the case with the statement, "We have whittled our demands to a minimum. We are presenting our claims not to obtain a compromise but in order to establish their justice."

Elisha Lee, chairman of the committee of Eastern railway managers, objected to a list of figures submitted tending to show the wages paid firemen on the Western railways were higher than those demanded by the Eastern employes.

Mr. Lee offered to furnish the board with accurate figures showing the exact wages paid all firemen, together with other data relative to engines and the duties of the firemen employed on them.

The hearing will be resumed tomorrow.

Cleveland, O., March 10.—Stephen E. O'Neal, the Cleveland American League team's first catcher in 1912 and the last of this season's hold-outs, today signed his contract. He will leave tomorrow for the Cleveland training camp at Pensacola, Fla.

TRIAL OF HAZERS THURSDAY

Judge Peebles Refuses to Grant Continuance in Case of Sophomores Charged With Causing Death of U. N. C. Freshman

(Special Star Telegram.)

Hillsboro, N. C., March 10.—According to the ruling of Judge R. B. Peebles, of Jackson, presiding judge of the Orange county Superior Court, convening at Hillsboro this morning, the four Sophomores of the University of North Carolina under indictment for manslaughter for the cause of the death of Isaac William Rand, of Smithfield, in the early morning hours of September 13th, 1912, in a hazing episode, will be called for trial at 9:30 Thursday morning.

This order was passed by Judge Peebles today at noon to the clerk of the court, for entry upon the docket after mentioning a message which he had received from Attorney Victor S. Bryant asking for continuance of the case for reason of his detention in Raleigh upon the closing days of the Legislature. Instantly, ex-Judge J. S. Manning, of Durham, counsel for one of the defendants, was on his feet asking for a continuance of the case. He wished to defer the calling of the trial beyond Thursday morning since, he said, granting that the Legislature adjourns on Wednesday the custom of previous sessions of the Legislature calls for a sitting of the members of the body through the night of the day before reaching adjournment. The judge made answer to this excuse advanced by Mr. Manning that it was a new wrinkle to him, and he made it unmistakably clear that no trifle of an excuse would lead him to order a continuance of the case. Judge Peebles' decisive opposition to continuance cut short further parleying by attorneys for the defense, although several were present.

This being the regular March term of Orange court the session began at 10 o'clock this morning. Judge Peebles' charge to the jury was one of forceful simplicity, concrete examples of violations of the law in each of the large classes of crime being advanced. The concluding remarks of his charge to the jury were thrusts at the institution of hazing and he clearly showed that he placed all forms of hazing in a class of crimes which the law of the land must deal with. He emphasized the point that if any set of students take a Freshman and force him to do things against his will, such action is classed as an assault by the court. They have no right to make a Freshman sing or dance, or do anything else that he does not want to do, said Judge Peebles. A violation of this right belonging to the individual makes each member of the party of hazers guilty of assault.

The unusual interest attached to the trial and the amount of other business to be disposed of at this term of court brought many visiting members of the legal fraternity here today. Mayor W. J. Brogden, ex-Judge J. S. Manning, R. H. Sykes and W. H. Brahman, of the Durham bar, are here. A. E. Woltz, of Gastonia; E. S. Parker, of Graham; W. P. Stacy, Louis Goodman and Louis Poisson, of Wilmington; L. P. McLendon and Attorney Koontz, of Chapel Hill, are all interested in the present term of Orange court.

Arbitrators under the Erdman Act met yesterday and began hearings on the differences between the Eastern railways and their firemen.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were formally presented to the diplomatic corps in the East room of the White House yesterday.

A vice president of one of the large Chicago mail order houses testifying before the vice commission yesterday, declared $8 a week was a living wage for a girl "adrift."

President Wilson may find it a hard task to confine the extra session of Congress to tariff revision as certain members desire to take up currency reform and Alaskan legislation.

After a brief executive session, in which the nomination of John H. Marble to be a member of the Inter-State Commerce Commission was confirmed, the Senate yesterday adjourned until Tuesday.

Militant suffragettes yesterday tried to break through the cordon of troops guarding the royal carriage while King George was on the way to Parliament with the intention of throwing petitions into the state coach.

The trial of four University of North Carolina Sophomores, charged with causing the death of a Freshman during a hazing prank, will begin at Hillsboro Thursday, Judge Peebles refusing yesterday to grant an order for continuance of the case.

TROOPS OF SONORA CAPTURE NACOZARI

REBELS THREATEN LAMPASOS

Douglas, Ariz., March 10.—State troops and recruits of Sonora, rallying to the call of the State government to oust all of Huerta's Federal soldiers from the border country, yesterday scored their first victory in wresting Nacozari, an important mining town below this point, from the Federal garrison. The defeated Federals not killed or captured arrived early today on a special train at Agua Prieta, opposite Douglas, their commander mortally wounded and 20 others hurt.

From various points along the Arizona border come reports of other movements of State troops against border and inland towns held by small Federal garrisons. The mining camp at El Tigre, 40 miles southeast of Douglas, last night fell into the hands of 150 State troops. The 100 Federals of the garrison fleeing toward the border were overtaken by the Constitutionalists who captured their arms, ammunition and artillery after a sharp skirmish.

Most of the fighting was done at long range. The rebels, having no artillery, kept under cover to avoid the fire of two machine guns used by the Federal garrison.

Lampasos Threatened.

Mexico City, March 10.—Vicente Segura, a retired millionaire matador, who several days ago purchased a supply of arms and ammunition at New Orleans to aid the revolt started by Felix Diaz at Vera Cruz, has turned over the bill of lading for these supplies to the Mexican government, which will have them delivered to the Federal army fighting against the rebels in the Northern States.

Five hundred followers of Venustiano Carranza today threatened the town of Lampasos in Nuevo Leon. Lampasos, located 75 miles southwest of Laredo, Texas, is one of the most important towns in the State.

As soon as the news reached here, Gen. Jose Maria Mier was ordered to take 600 Federal troops from Monterey, 100 miles away, and try to prevent the rebels entering the town.

No reports have reached the Federal capital during the past 12 hours as to Carranza's whereabouts, but he is believed to be still near Bajan, where he retired after his defeat.

According to officials here the new administration found the Federal army numbering less than 35,000 men, although President Madero repeatedly declared it contained over 50,000. The ranks are being filled from rebels who have surrendered and from recruits.

Railway Taken.

Eagle Pass, Texas, March 10.—Governor Venustino Carranza, of the State of Coahuila, Mexico, who has organized a revolution against the Huerta government, has taken possession of the Mexican National Railway at Monclova, 150 miles south of the border, according to refugees who arrived at Eagle Pass today. The refugees declare that 3,000 rebel troops are encamped at Monclova.

It is reported that 500 railroad employes have volunteered to enlist under the Carranza standard.

Cannea Isolated.

Cannea, Sonora, March 10.—This mining town, with its many American residents, again is isolated from railroad communication with the Arizona border. Manuel Diguez, a former mayor of Cannea, with 400 Constitutionalists, has cut telegraph lines and taken up rails on the branch of the Southern Pacific connecting Cannea with Naso on the border. The State troops also hold the town water station, but have promised not to cut the supply nor to burn any bridges on the railway.

Disposition of U. S. Forces.

Washington, March 10.—Giving close attention to the fresh disturbances in the Western States of Mexico near the international lines, Secretary of War Garrison is awaiting advices from Brig. Gen. Bliss before making any changes in the disposition of the American military forces in that quarter. Realizing that close proximity of American and Mexican troops conduces to bickerings and quarrels that might have serious results, the secretary has instructed Gen. Bliss to investigate conditions along the border, with special reference to the feasibility of withdrawing the American troops for a short distance from the line if that can be done without diminishing the efficacy of the border patrol, and with due regard to the execution of the neutrality laws.

Baltimore, March 10.—The Baltimore, International League, baseball club left today for Fayetteville, N. C., where it will practice until April 1st.

THINKS $8 A WEEK A PLENTY

Vice President of Big Mail Order House Tells Illinois Vice Commission a Girl "Adrift" Can Live on This Sum.

Chicago, March 10.—William C. Thorne, vice president of Montgomery Ward & Company, a mail order house, told the vice commission today that a girl "adrift" can live on $8 a week, thus:

Room rent, $3.00; breakfast, (coffee and rolls) 40 cents; luncheons 90 cents; dinners $1.40; car fare 60 cents; clothing and incidentals, $1.70.

The witness gave the foregoing statement to show that the commission's idea that there should be a minimum wage scale for women of $12 a week is too high. The figures given, he said, were the actual expenditures of one of his 1,973 female employes. Another girl employe disbursed her wages as follows:

Room and board $3.50; laundry 20 cents; car fare 20 cents; clothing and incidentals $3.80; savings 25 cents.

The statement fails to account for a surplus of five cents, but this was not explained and Senator Beall remarked that the girl probably spent it frivolously.

The witnesses today, in addition to Thorne, were James Simpson, George Tytton, John Basch, John T. Pirie, E. J. Lehmann, Henry C. Schwab, Albert Ellinger, all representing department stores, employing thousands of girls and women. There were no witnesses from the underworld. The commission, which expects to pursue its work for the next two years, adjourned until further notice, which probably will be given the latter part of next week.

Senator Juul told Thorne that girl after girl had been on the stand and testified to having "gone wrong" because they could not make a living otherwise.

"Oh, yes, but for the most part I don't believe those yarns," interrupted the witness.

The earnings of Montgomery, Ward & Company for the last fiscal year were $2,370,000, Thorne said, and Juul, having calculated that the expenditure of $75,000 a year would raise the salaries of the five, six and seven dollar girls to $10, asked the witness if he did not think the money might be well spent in that way.

"But," came the reply, "we are already spending that much in benefits, old age pensions and the like. We look after the welfare of our employes very closely and if this commission can show us where we fail we'll remedy the defect. If it can be shown that our girls need more money then they shall have it, although I think $8 is a good minimum."

Thorne said in his opinion a minimum wage scale of $12 a week for women would drive half the factories out of Illinois and cost half the women their jobs.

"I believe immorality is a state of mind," declared Jaseph Basch, of Siegel, Cooper & Company, another witness. Of the 1,250 girls employed in his store, Mr. Basch thought only a small percentage could be persuaded to go the "easiest way."

Other merchants on the stand said they thought they could raise the minimum wage without materially affecting their various firms' profits.

Lieut. Gov. Barratt O'Hara, chairman of the investigating committee, has received communications from the Governors of Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio, informing him that they will include in next messages to their Legislatures a recommendation for the appointment of commissions endowed with the same plenary powers as the Illinois body.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS

Several Appointments Yesterday to Important State Boards

Raleigh, N. C., March 10.—Henry B. Varner, of Lexington, was appointed chairman of the State's Prison by Gov. Craig this afternoon; N' O'Berry, of Wayne, and H. A. London on the Board of Internal Improvements; W. L. Hill, of Duplin, and J. C. Cromartie, of Bladen, were appointed on the Colored Hospital board, at Goldsboro; Dr. Edward Jenner Wood, of New Hanover, and R. H. Lewis, of Wake, to the State Board of Health, and W. B. Cooper, of Wilmington, as a director in the Agricutural and Mechanical College.

A. B. Croom, Jr., of Pender, is appointed a director of the State Hospital at Raleigh.

F. C. WATKINS PARDONED

Raleigh, N. C., March 10.—Governor Craig today pardoned F. C. Watkins, the Black Mountain constable, whom he defended for killing John Hill Bunting, prominent traveling man, three years ago, in a Black Mountain hotel.

Craig relates the testimony, declaring Bunting and Paul Collins, who was seriously shot, had terrorized the hotel guests and Watkins was called after midnight to restore order. The Governor says they attacked Watkins and he shot them in self-defense. "I defended Watkins, do not believe he is guilty, he ought not to have been convicted and has suffered too much," Governor Craig says. Watkins served eight of his 18 months on the roads.

LEGISLATURE BUSY NEARING THE END

Preparing for Adjournment With Revenue Bill After This Midnight

THE SOLICITORS' SALARY BILL

Killed by Reference to Committee—Pilotage Measure Tabled—A. & Y. Dismemberment Will be Investigated.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 10.—The lower House of the North Carolina General Assembly served notice on the Senate, through a resolution offered by Mr. Grier, of Iredell, today, that the members pledged to remain until business is cleared intend to rush the revenue bill through final reading Tuesday night after midnight so that it will show on the journal Wednesday morning and then adjourn forthwith.

The House calendar was practically clear this morning and bills coming over from the Senate's congested calendar provide all the grist, except the revenue and the machinery bills.

The House killed the solicitor's salary bill from the Senate by a reference to the propositions and grievances committee, which will have no further meetings or reports. The House also defeated the Senate resolution for a special committee to investigate and report to the special session as to the advisability of a State representation at the Panama Pacific Exposition.

The joint conference committee on the Senate amendments to the revenue bill spent the afternoon considering this matter in preparation for a report to the night sessions of each House. Then the House will dispose of the matter and be ready to pass the bill on second reading Tuesday and on final reading Tuesday night after midnight as of Wednesday morning.

The Senate killed the House bill for uniform bills of lading, and passed a substitute bill to alow women to serve on school committees and as trustees of educational institutions with an amendment that no elective office be included. The bill was sent to the House where two similar bills have already been killed.

The Senate at the afternoon session passed the resolution for the investigation by the Corporation Commission with the Attorney General of the dismemberment of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley (Atlantic & Yadkin) railroad, after defeating an amendment that the State be indemnified by bond against the expense incurred.

A committee substitute for the anti-hazing bill of Senator Ivie was passed after an explanation from Senator Council to the effect that the bill was a very mild one. It makes it indictable for the faculty of any college to fail to expel a student who has been convicted of hazing in the court.

Senator Nimocks' legislative reference library bill went down in defeat under the onslaughts of Senators Pharr and Jones.

The Senate passed the House bill allowing the inmates of the soldiers' home $1 a month pocket money instead of 50 cents.

A joint resolution offered by Senator McLean was adopted, calling upon the North Carolina representatives in Congress to assist in securing an international agreement on the cotton tare question.

Among other Senate bills passed were the following: Allowing sheriffs and other officers to sue for rewards for capture of criminals. Amended so as not to apply to crimes committed in the county of such sheriff or officer. Increase the amount for the support of the North Carolina historical commission from $5,010 to $6,000. Provide a contingent fund of $500 for the State insurance commission. Amend Revisal as to the distribution of the estates of married women. House substitute for Senate bill to prevent degradation of public morals in Guilford county.

Among the House bills passed were the following: Incorporating Monroe Warehouse & Storage Company. Provide a city lockup for Monroe. Provide a court stenographer for Lee and Moore counties. Prohibiting killing or selling quail in Vance county. Protect fish in rivers of Columbus county. Establish a recorder's court for Brunswick county. Restore to the Indians of Robeson county their rightful and ancient name of "Cherokees" of Robeson county.

Pilotage Bill Killed.

Representative Bellamy in the House procured the defeat of the Mintz bill today for amending the lower Cape Fear pilotage act, his motion to table the bill being carried by a large majority.

Mr. Mintz explained in supporting the bill that while being a representative from Wayne county, he was formerly of Brunswick and feels a deep personal interest. He reviewed the history of the bill in this session and its favorable report from this committee on Propositions and Grievances.

He said the Board of Navigation and Pilotage of Wilmington has control of the pilotage business on the Cape Fear river and is composed of men directly interested in the pilotage business and charged that the board has made arbitrary regulations prohibiting a large number of old pilots from carrying on their business. The bill, he explained, provides that no one directly interested in the pilotage business shall serve on the board and opens the business to all of the former and present pilots. Mr. Bellamy, of Brunswick, strongly opposed the bill and the re-opening of the pilotage question. He urged that the members vote down the bill as not wanted by any parties at real interest and insisted that Wilmington and the local board can and does readily cope with the situation.

The House bill for pensioning disabled firemen in the service of Wilmington, passed the Senate and was ordered enrolled for ratification.

House—Night Session

The House voted tonight 50 to 34 against the establishment of a State tax commission separate from the Corporation Commission but left open until Tuesday the question of whether there shall simply remain the present State tax commission composed of the Corporation Commissioners or, as proposed by Representative Justice in an amendment that he will offer, the appointment of a tax commissioner to act in conjunction with the chairman of the Corporation Commission.

Leaving this question open, the House passed on many of the subsequent sections of the machinery bill.

The bill from the Senate to allow women to hold positions on school committees and boards of trustees of educational institutions came up. Mr. Bowie moved its reference to the committee on Federal relations. Speaker Connor suggested the committee of marital relations. Mr. Kellum suggested immediate passage. In the end the bill went to the calendar committee.

Bills passed included: Provide for election of assistant cotton weighers throughout the State. Change the title of corporation clerk to deputy Secretary of State. Provide pay for Commissioners of Bladen. Allow chairman of Commissioners of Haywood pay for extra work.

Chairman Williams, of the Finance Committee, introduced the machinery bill and its consideration was taken up immediately, its principal new feature being the proposed State tax commission to supercede the Corporation Commission in that capacity. Chairman Williams declared that not less than $200,000 was lost during the past year to the State through failure to collect Schedules B and C taxes, the inheritance tax and others.

The separate commission and centering of duties and responsibilities in it, he believed would be a good investment.

Mr. Bowie estimated that the separate commission would cost $20,000.

He thought with the re-assessment knocked out, there was no use for the separate commission for the next two years. Mr. Page advocated the separate commission. Mr. Justice gave notice of his proposed amendment for one commissioner to be appointed to act with the chairman of the Corporation Commission and the clerk to the Corporation Commission.

The House went into committee of the whole after 10 o'clock tonight in an effort to clear the muddle in the machinery bill caused by voting down the first section to create a separate State tax commission with the result that Sections 1 to 13 of the 1911 machinery act, including the Corporation Commission as State tax commission and adopting for the remainder of the machinery bill the sections of the old 1909 act, that has the effect of abolishing the county tax assessor appointed by the State tax commission and leaving the assessing in the hands of the assessors and listers appointed in the counties. In this form the machinery bill passed second reading near midnight and took its place on the calendar for final passage in both Houses tomorrow.

During the work in committee of the whole Mr. Justice charged that re-assessment was receded from because the members did not have the courage to vote for it and face their constituents back home and that the Finance Committee backed down under pressure from the corporation interests. Chairman Williams denied the charges and pointed out that whatever concessions had been made to corporations had been made on the floors of the two Houses and not in committee. Mr. Justice passed a sharp criticism on members of the Corporation Commission for being in the lobbies working against any change in the present law constituting the commissioners the State tax commissioners.

An important amendment to the machinery bill was an amendment by Brawley, authorizing city and commissioners to make contracts with professional tax collectors.

The Senate tonight passed the Jones-Grier bill putting telegraph, water and electric light and gas companies under the control of the Corporation Commission with the section that would direct the Corporation Commission to require physical connection between competing telephone lines stricken out. It exempts municipally-owned plants. Other bills passed included: The Bellamy bill permitting county commissioners to make deductions for sentences of convicts for good behavior. The clause allowing the payment of money allowance for the convict's family was stricken out. Allow widows to draw pensions of husbands for one year after death. The Kellum resolution for a commission to recommend to the next Legislature as to the advisability of the State publishing school books for children at cost. Amend the law as to the liability of stockholders in State banks. Amend the law as to forms of life insurance contracts. Amend the law as to polling places and registrations. Repeal the law permitting the use of saccharine. Allow the State treasurer to take up certain old outstanding bonds. Amend the revisal relative to taking depositions of non-residents. Require the securities of insurance companies whose stock is being sold at time of organization to be submitted to the commissioner of insurance for approval. Amend the act of 1905 to cut down number of justices of the peace in New Hanover.

Bills tabled or otherwise defeated were: Establish reformatory for women. Penalize telephone and telegraph companies for failure to deliver messages correctly and promptly. Bill for non-partisan school boards, provide for assistant pharmacists. Restrict the use of the term "trust" in names of corporations. Abolish joint tenancy between husband and wife.

Toward the close of the night session Senator Hobgood, in behalf of the assistant clerks, presented Chief Clerk Self with a handsome gold-handled umbrella, and Senator Council, speaking for the pages, bestowed upon Lt. Gov. Daughtridge a box of cigars, which the president of the Senate said he appreciated as highly as any gift he had received, notwithstanding the value of the others.

Bills passed for an inspection tax on liquor shipped into the State. Senator Hobgood's bill extending immunity from prosecution to parties testifying for the State in gambling cases.

At 11:40 the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

House—62nd Day

The House convened at 11 o'clock; prayer by Rev. L. F. Johnson. The committee on appropriations reported unfavorably the resolution to allow the postmaster at the State House a bonus of $20 for his services during the Legislature. He is paid by the Postoffice Department. The committee on Propositions and Grievances reported unfavorably the bill for a State Board of Examiners to license barbers.

Revenue Bill

The revenue bill as amended by the Senate, was reported to the House. Representative Williams made the point that the Senate had raised the tax rate on the people and cut considerably the franchise tax on corporations. Representative Doughton moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to the bill. This motion was carried and the Speaker was directed to appoint a conference committee.

The solicitors' salary bill as passed by the Senate, came up and Representative Doughton spoke against it, making a motion that prevailed that the bill be referred to the committee on propositions and grievances, the understanding being that there will be no report from the committee, the bill being "put to sleep."

The House passed the bill to appropriate $10,000 for the State School for the Feeble-minded at Kinston. This institution asked for $250,000.

The House voted down the joint resolution from the Senate for a special committee from the Legislature to investigate and report to the special session on the advisability of North Carolina representation at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Speaker Connor announced as the committee on the part of the House for adjusting the differences between the Senate and the House on the Revenue bill, Representatives Williams, of Buncombe; Doughton, Wallace, Young, of Harnett, and Ross.

The vote by which the bill was defeated some days ago to restore to the Indians of Robeson county their ancient name of "Cherokees" was reconsidered and the bill passed on its readings. It gives these Indians the name "Cherokees of Robeson."

The House took a recess at 2 o'clock until 8 o'clock tonight.

Senate—62nd Day.

With most of the Senators in their seats the Senate convened at 10 o'clock; prayer by Rev. T. W. O'Kelly.

The bill making uniform bills of lading was called up by Senator Daniel, who explained that it estopped a railroad from denying what its agents had signed, holding it hard and fast to the recital of facts in the bill of lading, and also made the bill of lading negotiable; that it was asked for by the bankers, and that several other States already had the law.

Senator Peterson, saying he spoke for the merchants, opposed the bill, saying it would work a hardship on that class, and that only one State, Louisiana, had passed a similar act, and it had not worked well there. Senator Nimocks spoke for it as protecting the bankers and as being similar to an act passed by the United States Senate and ten other States. Senator Evans, of Pitt, opposed on the ground that it sought to make negotiable instruments of something that was materially different from its accepted legal definition. The bill failed to pass by 16 to 21.

By consent Senator Nimocks introduced a resolution expressing the thanks of the Senate for the fair and courteous consideration shown by President Pro Tem Pharr while in the chair. Adopted by rising vote. Senator Pharr briefly expressed his thanks and appreciation.

Another resolution by Senator Nimocks was for a committee to investigate the employers' liability and compensation act and report to the extra session.

Senator Hannah offered a resolution in behalf of the engrossing clerks of Senate and House and the enrolling clerk and assistants.

Upon receipt of the message that the House had failed to concur in the Senate amendments to the revenue bill, Senators Cook, Long, Gilliam, Barnes and Bryant were appointed on the conference committee.

The substitute bill allowing women to serve on school committees and as trustees of educational institutions, but not State or county school boards, precipitated some discussion. Senator Mason thought it was not a matter of legislation to declare what were public officers, and Senator Jones suggested that the matter ought to be referred to the constitutional amendments committee. Senator Bryant did not consider it so much of a constitutional matter, and favored women serving in such positions. Senator Hobgood agreed with Senator Bryant and submitted the observation that women did have somewhat to complaint of at the hands of men. Senator Nimocks also supported the bill, saying the militant suffragettes did not want these little places.

Senator Pharr was bitterly opposed to anything that would get women mixed up in politics. Moreover, the House had already killed the bill. Senator Daniel considered that this question were put up to the Supreme Court now, that tribunal would put its ear to the ground, as it often did. Practically all of the primary education of the State was entrusted to the women.

Senator McLean did not believe the women of the State were demanding this thing. If we passed this bill, in two years the women would came asking for the suffrage. Senator Evans, of Pitt, likewise denied that women were asking for it, and insisted, among other objections, that to have women on boards would cause friction. Senator Davis feared some Senators were seeing ghosts. With two-thirds of school teachers women, they ought to be represented on committees.

Senator Council did not think the constitutional question need bother the Senate, for the Supreme Court would not declare the act unconstitutional, and he doubted the hardihood of anyone to raise the question anyhow.

Senator Carson bore witness that in the West the women had proved their ability to handle the school systems. Senator Scott quoted a few lines from the peroration of his graduating speech on "Women's Rights", apotheosizing her sway of home and affections. Senator Peterson said he loved women too well to vote for the bill.

An amendment by Senator Pharr that the bill do not apply to offices voted for by the people was adopted, and the bill was passed by 27 to 18 and ordered sent to the House.

Senate bills passed final reading: Amending Revisal so as to extend time six months for veterinary surgeons to obtain license, with an amendment by Senator Jones not to apply to veterinaries now practicing. Supplemental bill introduced by Senator Brown replacing in the railroad shed bill the provision for protection of workmen on cars against hot sunshine as well as rain, snow and cold. Amending charter of Linden. Allowing chairman of Haywood commissioners extra pay. Providing for pay of Bladen commissioners. Promoting teaching of agriculture and domestic science in Wake. Taxing dogs in Wayne and making them subjects of larceny.

House bills passed final reading: Requiring rate making bureaus to report same to State Insurance Commissioner for approval. Approving bond issue by Belhaven. Road law in Magnolia township, Duplin. Amending charter of Tabor. Granting charter to Sharpsburg. For special road tax in Robeson. Authorizing Brunswick commissioners to issue bonds for townships. Relative to stock law boundaries in Haywood, Transylvania, Avery and Pamlico. Allowing Guilford commissioners to establish farm schools. As to fees of Madison officers. Requiring burial of dead animals in Robeson. Correcting State grant 319 to Jas. Willis. Regulating hunting deer, squirrels and wild turkeys in Hoke. Amending Rowan drainage law. Taxing dogs in Duplin. Amending Haywood road law. Incorporating First Presbyterian church, Burnsville. Empowering Onslow commissioners to aid in erection of Confederate monument. Requiring certain reports of officers in

LEGISLATIVE MISCELLANY

New Shops for A. & M. College—Extra Session and Constitutional Questions Which Will be Involved—New Business

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 10.—The new shops for the A. & M. College that is provided for in the bills including $25,000 in the general appropriations budget and $25,000 from the revenue of the State Board of Agriculture, will be a much-needed addition to the college equipment and will take the place of the present antiquated shops. Included will be forge, foundry and general machine shops. The work is to be gotten under way early in the Summer.

When the Legislature adjourns Wednesday morning it will be without reference to the proposed extra session. This will be called later when the special commission on constitutional amendments is ready to report. This is expected to be sometime in the early Fall. The members of the commission have not been appointed yet. There are to be five members on the part of the House and eight on the part of the Senate. Then the Governor will appoint five additional commissioners. The president of the Senate and the Speaker of the House will name the members of the commission from their respective bodies. They are to serve without compensation except their expenses. They will pass upon the constitutional amendments that have been introduced at this session by members of the Legislature and will also have the privilege of proposing any other amendments that they agree upon. These are to be taken up in the special session which will also have the unlimited right to prescribe ballots on amendments without reference to whether they came through recommendation or originated in the extra session. The extra session will have a constitutional limitation of 20 days for its session and can take up any phase of legislation desired.

TRINITY ATHLETICS

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., March 10.—The basketball season closed with the game played Friday night with the A. & M. College. This year the team has not lost a game on the home floor, nor has it lost a game to a single North or South Carolina college team. Trinity has played 19 games, winning 12 of these. Owing to the fact that she has not lost a game to a Carolina college team, Trinity claims the championship of the State. This claim can not be disputed when the record made by the Trinity team has been taken into consideration. Although Trinity has not played Carolina, she has twice defeated Wake Forest and A. & M., and both of these teams have defeated Carolina.

Much interest is now being manifested in track work here, and the annual inter-class meet is scheduled to take place March 17th. Judging from the records held by some of those who are to participate in the events at this meet, field day this year promises to witness some first-class exhibitions of track athletics.

The 'Varsity track team will be selected from the members of the class teams. Lucas, of Charlotte, is captain of the 'Varsity team, and he has had a squad of men out hard at work for several weeks. Trinity will again take part in the inter-collegiate meet held annually at Raleigh. In addition to this meet, Manager Ratcliffe announces that he has arranged a meet with Wake Forest to be held on the latter's field some time this Spring.

Coach Atkins, of the Baltimore Orioles, has been on the field here for a week or more and he has been getting the boys down to hard, effective practice. He has already thinned out the rank of aspirants for the baseball team and selected a squad of about 25 of the best men to make up the regular practice squad, out of which the regular 'Varsity team will soon be selected.

LIQUOR SHIPMENTS.

Representative Webb Talks of Attitude of Express Companies.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., March 10.—When Representative Webb's attention was called to a story appearing in North Carolina papers today to the effect that the express companies, in a number of cases, were refusing to deliver whiskey to any one except druggists, hospitals and physicians, the Ninth district Congressman said that there was nothing in the Webb law to prohibit the shipment of whiskey to parties who desired to use it for private use. He said the express companies were taking a very narrow view of the law and evidently intended to embarrass people who wanted whiskey for legal purposes.

"I cannot imagine how the express people can refuse to deliver whiskey to parties living in the counties you mention," said Mr. Webb tonight.

"My law simply prohibits that the State law shall not be violated. It was not intended that shipment of liquor for private use should be prohibited."

A. P. Troutman was appointed postmaster at Keyser, Moore county, today. Justice S. Jones has been appointed rural delivery carrier at Flat Rock and Arthur H. Gill to a similar place at Saluda. Rural delivery service has been established at Townsville, Vance county, and designated as Route No. 1. P. R. A.

WANTS A 20-ROUND GO.

Jack Britton Would Meet McFarland in Long Distance Bout.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 10.—Encouraged by the showing Jack Britton made against Packey McFarland in a 10-round bout in New York last Friday, Dan Moran, Britton's manager, is endeavoring to match the boys for a 20-round fight here within the next two months. Morgan telegraphed a local promoter yesterday offering to put up himself a $6,000 guarantee for his man. McFarland outpointed Britton, but the latter's backers believe he would win in a long distance battle.

..Theatrical..

A. H. Woods' star, Dustin Farnum, in his stirring drama, entitled "The Littlest Rebel", promises to be the center of interest when this sterling player and his successful Civil War play comes to the Academy Thursday night.

The massive production comes intact, and is preceded by flattering reports of the great success achieved in the metropolis and in the other large cities. A feature of the performance is the introduction of a thrilling battle between Northern and Southern forces just outside of their home in a plantation cabin. The wife of the Confederate soldier dies, leaving the little girl alone. Her father, hoping to get her through the Federal lines to Richmond, is trapped by Unionists in the loft of the cabin, but the little girl pleads so effectively and the father's plight is so pitiful, the commanding officer of the squad that has taken him prisoner, permits him to escape. There is a skirmish, however, and both captor and Captive are betrayed. A court martial orders that one is to be hanged as a traitor and the other shot as a spy. Again the Littlest Rebel, after a visit to the general's camp, is instrumental in effecting their release.

Seats are now selling at Plummer's.

"The Fortune Hunter."

"The Fortune Hunter," Winchell Smith's comedy, which comes to the Academy for matinee and night Saturday, has been instantaneous and the indications are that it will continue to attract theatre-goers who find enjoyment in the most healthful of all exercises—laughter, when excited by a play that is absolutely clean in theme and presentation.

Fortune, that fickle jade, has been in divers ways; but seldom more amusingly than in Mr. Smith's comedy.

The entertaining scheme is conceived in the comfortable bachelor quarters of a Wall Street broker and reaches its denoeument under an umbrella sheltering from a Summer shower a couple of young lovers in a country garden.

The bitterness in life is suggested more than once in the spinning out of Nat Duncan's destiny, but the sweet of existence more than atone for any acrid drop in his experience, such tribulations as he endures while they promote gaiety for onlookers tend to show that any honest and manly chop may get on in this world after repeated set-backs, if only he will steer his course by a right sense of conduct and believe that much of a man's happiness is to be found in daily toil.

Grand Theatre's New Bill.

The new week at the Grand Theatre began yesterday most auspiciously be maintained. Master Harry Harrisly and today the same standard will sing a beautiful, illustrated song, "Oh! You Wonderful Boy.", and in the moving pictures there will be a swell bill. First off there is a great Selig, "Bill's Birthday Present," a comedy of Western boots and Eastern slippers. It is written and produced by William Duncan and there is a laugh in every line. Then again there is "Love in an Apartment Hotel", This is the story of a maid with aspirations and it will keep the interest from start to finish. In adition to these two there will be still a third picture and the delightful music by the Grand Theatre's real orchestra will round out one of the best offerings of the entire week.

Bijou's Big Day.

The drear and dismalness of yesterday could not keep the crowds back from the Bijou. Of course, there was a reason. It was because the Bijou is always bright and always warm and cozy, while providing the biggest and best kind of a show. Today's bill will be another corker and it will be headed by a film that will not only prove especially fascinating, but it is the Vitagraph's latest and features that popular emotional actress. Miss Florence Turner. It is called "Under the Make-Up", and it is a story of stage life with a throb and a thrill.

Another topliner on today is "The Ranch Owner's Love Making"? It is Edison's latest and best, telling a vivid romantic story of a bustling city and then of the rugged West. It is a story out of the ordinary.

There will also be other swell films on at the Bijou today, a new musical offering and solid comfort.

ALMOST BEYOND HUMAN ENDURANCE

Were the Agonies Which Miss Lance Underwent—She Lives to Tell the Story, However.

Palmer, Okla.—In a letter from this place, Miss Forrest E. Lance says: "As I have been benefitted by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, I want to write this letter for publication, as it may be the means of helping other suffering women.

For three years I suffered so, at times, with my back and bearing down pains, I would think I could not possibly endure the pain. I gradually got worse, and would look with dread for these trying times to roll around.

Finally I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, as I had heard so much of its help to other women, and how glad I am that I did, for I can truthfully say that I have been greatly benefitted by taking only four bottles; in fact, it has entirely relieved me.

I can truly sympathize with any sufferer from those awful pains due to womanly trouble, for I have certainly had the experience of them."

As a medicine for women who suffer from the numerous ailments peculiar to their sex, or as a tonic for tired, nervous, worn-out women, Cardui has a record of more than 50 years' success.

It has benefitted thousands of women in this time, and should do the same for you.

Give Cardui a trial.

Why is a Peace Conference? Why is a lot of gasbags?

Up to this time the Legislature is entirely on the defensive.

When you think of planting shade trees plant pecans or English walnuts.

Many a man who cracks a joke puts his foot in with all the alacrity of a man that is half-cracked.

The manner in which Senator Bacon was taken by surprise is no credit to those who sprung it on the Georgia statesman.

One reason why a fellow should always keep his eyes skinned is that some other fellow is more than apt to get his goat.

If the South is "in the saddle" at Washington it must have been asleep when it allowed the other crowd to get its Bacon.

An English suffragette threw a book at a magistrate. What defendant in court did she hit when she aimed at the magistrate?

No use to ladle out advice to President Wilson. He has a head of his own and a cabinet that can bedepended upon in case of emergency.

Our idea of the value of an alibi depends upon whether a man goes home so regularly that his wife does not have to sit up and watch the clock.

Do you belong to any organization that is boosting Wilmington? Does the organization you belong to do much for Wilmington? If not, why not?

It is up to us. We can make Wilmington grow. A city's progress depends upon its men. If they are the right kind, the progress of their city will show it. That's all.

The "Jackies" on the new battleship Texas have named its big gun "Woodrow." If all the boys who are to be named Woodrow turn out to be big guns, the country will be perfectly safe.

Neither Wilson nor Marshall need any advice from the outside. The wives of the two distinguished gentlemen seem to be more than ordinarily well qualified when it comes to comprehensive points of view.

How would you like for a trunk line of good roads to run through your county? Well, new through lines of highways are going to run through such counties as have roads that can be linked up with those of other counties.

Take a sack along to get yours, but don't fill it with what belongs to somebody else. Verily, very few have ever been able to get away with very much that they do not earn themselves. More honest men than crooks get rich enough to retire from business.

A California woman is suing another for $50,000 heart balm money. The money she wants is for the alienation of her husband's affections, but it is difficult to distinguished whether his affections are really worth that much or whether his affinity is good for the money.

The high grade of intelligence which is a feature of the present session of the State Legislature was strikingly emphasized by the almost unanimous manner wherein it rejected Governor Craig's excellent proposal for a more equitable system of taxation.—Asheville Citizen.

A number of young men in Wilmington ought to be studying Spanish and Portuguese. In a couple of years they will need it in their business. Young man, don't waste your time. Learn to speak English, Spanish, French and German. Any young man who tries can master any language while he loafs.

If other Nations insist on having big navies it is up to us to have a navy that can wallop the stuffing out of any of them. We need not lay any store on the assumption that if we are in the "dove-of-peace" business they won't sooner or later fire into our dove cote. So long as you are likely to meet bullies, don't let your muscles get anyways mushy.

The Legislature did not give us any State-wide primary law, it did not give us any State-wide stock law, it did not give us a dog law for the encouragement of the sheep industry, and it did not give us many things that mean progress for North Carolina. The next campaign in North Carolina ought to be a campaign of issues, and politicians ought to be given to understand that they will have to toe the mark or get off the perch for men with progressive ideas.

WILMINGTON'S GOVERNMENT.

Those sober-sided citizens of Wilmington who fancy that the commission form of government has removed our municipal affairs from the realm of politics had better have another "think" coming to them. So long as there is to be a mayor and five councilmen to elect there will be something doing in local politics. The fact that Wilmington is soon to have an election for a mayor and five councilmen is sufficient warning to the citizens of Wilmington that we have city politics in our midst, and certainly the present activity in local political circles is sufficient to arouse the people of Wilmington to a serious consideration of the interests of their city for the next two years to come.

Two years ago the commission form of government went into effect in this city for its initial trial. That term will expire next May, so it is for the citizens of Wilmington to take stock of themselves and see just where they are "at". They had better begin right now to take measure of their administration and determine what should be done for the next two years. Into whose hands is the city of Wilmington to be committed for two long years with the beginning of the next fiscal year, which is to begin in May?

In view of Wilmington's present form of government, this city has been likened to a corporation with the mayor as its manager and its five councilmen as a board of directors. That is quite true, with the exception that Wilmington is more than an ordinary corporation, for it is one with a property valuation of $12,000,000 and 30,000 stockholders composed of every man, woman and child in the city. The largest to the smallest interest in the important city of Wilmington is concerned in its government, yet if we were to consider the variety of politics and politicians coming to the front we would think the government of Wilmington was some small affair to be turned over to any and everybody.

Wilmington's citizens had better get that out of their heads right now. The management of a great public corporation twenty times bigger than our largest private corporation, with receipts aggregating more than $250,000 a year and disbursements running from $400,000 to $500,000 a year, is a matter of no small concern, so it is time for the people of this city to realize the import of their choosing a mayor and councilmen for another two years to come. When we go about doing that let us consider that Wilmington is one of the biggest corporations in the entire State of North Carolina, and let us choose its manager and directors with the full knowledge that they are men capable of managing such a corporation. Who are they to be?

We have no idea, at present, but it is time for us to be seriously considering the kind of men to whom we would be willing to trust the management of a $12,000,000 business if it were ours indivdually. Wilmington has made progress and will continue to make progress, but if this city is to make its maximum of advancement it must have its affairs in capable hands. So far as the business and commerce of Wilmington is concerned, it is going forward because that is in the hands of men who are on their jobs in that particular. However, the administration of the affairs of the city challenges our serious consideration. It might not be out of place to say that it is not now a question of what Wilmington must do during the next two years in the way of making further progress, so far as its government is concerned, but how it is to pay up its debts and get even for what it has been doing. We are at present facing a condition and not a theory, so it is idle for us to speculate about what the city can enter into at this time. Right at present it is for us to consider how we can get even and take a new start.

We may as well say that under present conditions, Wilmington needs the ablest men it can get for mayor and councilmen. Conditions make that imperative. The business and commercial welfare of the city demands it, and the future prospects of Wilmington make it a matter of great magnitude for all the people of this city and its great commercial and business interests. It is time to get down to business if we want Wilmington's big corporation interests conducted by men who really are capable of managment with large scope to it.

GREAT TRUNK LINE.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says the Seaboard Air Line is at work upon a scheme for a great trunk line from Chicago to Jacksonville, and Tampa and Key West. Says that paper:

"When deals now pending are announced as complete, it is said, a through line of railroad from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, via Jacksonville, will become a reality, and that reality is expected soon by those in position to know the facts.

"The road will have a port in Ohio, on Lake Erie, and will tap the great coal fields of Ohio and West Virginia, the manufacturing regions of Ohio, Kentucky and the Carolinas, the cotton and tobacco centres of Georgia and the Carolinas, the furniture manufacturing regions of the South, and bring the products direct to Jacksonville and to Tampa for export and for distribution through the Central and South American countries, and even for export to Europe through the direct lines of steamships that are planned to ply from Jacksonville to Europe and to South America.

"In 1893 when work really started on the actual construction of the Panama Canal, there was a shaking up of interest in all railroads that reached a Southern port, or hoped in the dim and distant future to ultimately run its trains to deep water in the South.

"Norfolk, Wilmington, Beaufort, S. C., Georgetown, S. C., Savannah, Brunswick, Fernandina, Jacksonville, Miami, Key West, Tampa, Pensacola, Mobile, New Orleans and Galveston, all came into the limelight for a more or less severe scrutinizing for availability for terminal purposes.

"As time passed and it was seen after careful study of the situation that there is no doubt of the advantage held by a railroad with terminals at one or more of these Southern ports, the scramble for advantage and position became worth watching. Railroads never scramble out in the open; and railroads never tell what they are going to do, and it is only by watching the course of events and putting two and two together that a probable intention is found out. One railroad deal that has been going on by degrees, and quietly, for the past six or seven years at least, is of especial interest to Florida."

Whether such an ambitious scheme is contemplated by the Seaboard or not, it is a fact that the system keeps on buying or leasing roads. Evidently the new Seaboard Air Line is being strongly financed, and it evidently is destined to be a much greater factor in the development of this incomparable South Atlantic country.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Even if the commission form is not the thing, we would like to se a change from the present ward system of selecting aldermen.—Durham Herald.

To show the interest being taken in the pecan industry in the eastern section of the State, Mr. Officer informed The Enterprise that there was a pecan farm at Lake Wacamaw containing 80 acres, and that the Huyler Candy Co., of New York, had sent a representative down there some time ago to engage 20 tons of nuts a year to be used in the manufacture of their celebrated candies. Though it will be eight years before the trees will be at their best, the company was desirous of getting an option on the nuts, and had signed an agreement to pay 75 cents per pound for the 20 tons. This will give an idea of the vast possibilities of the pecan industry.—Mullins Enterprise.

VOTE FOR A GREATER WILMINGTON

Editor Star:—

In view of the fact that I have been a very close student of political and business conditions, I make bold to assert, it is my wish that the City of Wilmington should grow while the time is propitious. This is the time for things to be done if the people wish the city to ever become the port and manufacturing center that location permits.

You have the opportunity knocking at your door, if you fail to see that the time has come for you to act and to do so with dispatch the city can not become any larger than she is at present, why because Norfolk, Charleston, Savannah, New Orleans, Jacksonville and even Beaufort, N. C., will grasp that which we are throwing away.

Two years ago I was a candidate for Councilman from the Second Ward and during that time I advocated a few plans for building greater Wilmington which were laughed to scorn; since, however, I am very glad to note that the business people have realized the benefits that will result in one of the planks of my platform and are trying to have the Legislature to pass a bill permitting the bridging of the Cape Fear, etc.

In view of the success of that campaign, I am going to offer for your consideration the following, after first asking a few questions:

First. Do you wish the city's population increased to 50,000 persons in less than two years' time?

Second. Do you wish the city's income increased to $1,500,000 annually?

Third. Do you wish Wilmington to become the most beautiful city in the southeast?

You will say impossible, but if the suggestions below are thought over carefully you can readily see an answer to the above questions.

First. The city has about reached the limit of its credit and can hardly pay interest on its bonds, and the State law will not permit the issuing of many more.

Second. Wilmington cannot compete with the rest of the South Atlantic cities unless she spends large sums of money to make this a port of entry, nor can she increase her population unless manufacturing enterprises are established.

Third. The people will not invest their money in stocks; would rather allow it to remain in the banks on interest or in building and loan associations. Thus no manufacturing.

Fourth. It is up to the municipality, as her credit is poor she will have to provide the funds to improve and build the city through municipal bonds guaranteed by one or more large trust companies, such as the Trust Company of North America.

In the Trust Company guaranteed bond the city will be relieved from ever having to retire the principle of the said bonds and will only have to pay the interest as it accrues, further this could be obviated by the following, of another plan which I have, and am not ready to divulge. The net proceeds of the bond issue I have in mind would provide funds to build a large ship yard and dry dock and wharves and concrete piers, this would, of course bring to Wilmington at least 5,000 mechanics and their families, which would increase the population to 50,000 or more, and further make this the most important port on the South Atlantic for trans-Atlantic liners en route to Panama and also for Middle Western shipments.

A municipally-owned ship yard and dry dock is what we need to make the city and to do those things suggested in the two first questions asked, as well as to provide funds to make Wilmington the city beautiful.

These things can be done by electing into office at the coming election men who believe in doing things, I will be glad to receive criticisms from friends and any one who doubts the feasibility of the above.

JOHN S. RAMOS.

AN IMPORTANT CRISIS IN CITY'S HISTORY

Editor Morning Star: Is Wilmington bankrupt? Not by any means. But this city is like a great industrial plant that has been managed in a rather lax manner with too much being paid out in the way of salaries and too little attention paid to the little items that in the course of a year run into thousands of dollars. According to her population Wilmington's debt is not unduly large, and with a steady hand at the helm this city with her splendid advantages should make enormous progress during the next few years. The time has arrived, however, when it is highly important that business methods should be applied to the city's affairs and a stop put to the ever increasing tax rate. Unless there is a drop in the rate of taxation outsiders can hardly be expected to invest their money here. It costs money, of course, to make improvements, and a good deal of it, but do the taxpayers of Wilmington know that approximately $900,000 has been expended here during the past two years? And do they know that during the past two years between $40,000 and $50,000 more has been paid out in the way of salaries than formerly? Yes, there have been improvements made during the past two years, but one could hardly expect nearly one million dollars to be expended without making some showing.

The time will soon be at hand when the voters of Wilmington will have to choose a man to place at the head of the city's affairs for the next two years. Who is the best-fitted man for the place? In my opinion there is no man in Wilmington better fitted than William E. Springer. Twice during the past ten years has Mr. Springer served as Mayor. He was elected for his first term in the Spring of 1903, and went in last in the Spring of 1907. During the two terms he was in office about seventy blocks of macadam pavement was put down at an approximate cost of $1,200 per block; a portion of Second street paved with vitrified brick; a portion of Market street paved with vitrified brick; the market house built at Fourth and Campbell streets, and the engine house on Fourth street, between Market and Dock, and this work was done out of the regular city income and without the expenditure of one cent of bond money. The first systematic street improvement in this city was begun during the first administration of Mr. Springer, and it was at the time when Mr. Springer was elected Mayor for his second term that the bond issue for streets, water and sewerage was voted, but, as the money was to be handled by a special commission, Mr. Springer had nothing to do with the expenditure of the money from the sale of bonds. And it should be remembered that when Mr. Springer was Mayor the city's income was between $50,000 and $75,000 less per year than it is now. The tax rate then was $1.50—it is now $1.75—and when Mr. Springer went out of office he left between $50,000 and $60,000 in the city treasury. That looks to me like a pretty good record, and his record was not only good from a financial standpoint but also as to the enforcement of the law.

I hope Mr. Springer will enter the race for Mayor for I believe he is the right man to put at the helm to steer the city of Wilmington past the shoals that now confront her.

BACKACHE IS A DANGER SIGNAL

Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, Rheumatism and Serious Diseases Follow

There are other symptoms, such as pains in the region of the kidneys, nervousness, dizziness, tired and worn-out feeling, weak bladder, painful, scaly, or urinary troubles, which are just as dangerous, for the slightest kidney derangement if neglected may develop into the deadly Bright's Disease, Dropsy or Diabetes.

It is not only dangerous, but needless for you to suffer, and endure the tortures of these troubles, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely ends all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for the cure of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism, than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings, cleans out the clogged-up pores, neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter, that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drives it out of the system.

Three doses of Croxone a day, for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overcome disagreeable urinary disorders, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure the worst case of kidney, bladder trouble, or rheumatism.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else like it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

RETURNS AFTER 30 YEARS

Seafarer at Sea In Wilmington on Return to City Yesterday

Thirty years ago V. L. Jensen left Wilmington as ward room steward of the revenue cutter Colfax. He was 16 years old. He never returned, but went from the cruise back to Europe, to his native land of Denmark. Yesterday he saw Wilmington again. He went out in the city to find his old boarding place and look up old acquaintances. He spent hours trying to locate the boarding house, and failed; and he didn't find a soul that he knew or knew him. It got on his nerves, to some extent, as was natural. After 30 years he found changes so great that he was virtually a visitor for the first time. The incident emphasized the vast strides the city has made in a generation. Those who have been living here during the interim do not realize the sensations that the returned citizen found. A seafaring man, he was at sea in his old home, and discovered nothing that stirred any recollection of the city when he left here a youth of 16. During late years he has been steward on the Ward lines. Now he is with the Clyde Line, and is on the new passenger service given by the Cherokee.

In this connection it may be noted that for the first time in a twelvemonth, Mr. J. Shaughnessy, chief engineer, visited the port, also on the Cherokee. For a year he has been on the Charleston-Jacksonville run of the Clyde Line.

CIVIC DAY HERE YESTERDAY

Occasion Marked by Several Different Meetings and Exercises—Landscape Architect Addressed Civic Bodies

National Civic Day was observed very appropriately in this city yesterday, with first, tree-planting and arbor day exercises at the new Isaac Bear Memorial School, and later a meeting at the Academy of Music, where talks were made by Mayor Smith, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, superintendent of health; and following this a meeting at the Mayor's office, where Mr. P. R. Frost, a landscape architect, addressed representatives from the City Council, the civic committees of the Chamber of Commerce, Sorosis and the Civic League, on the adaptability to development of the city park at Greenfield Lake.

The exercises at the Bear school were held at 1 o'clock, when the school body was assembled on the front steps of the building and committees of the larger boys assisted in the setting out of two silver maple trees, which was done under the direction of experts from the Holland Nurseries. The trees were gifts to the Coutny Board of Education by Miss Julia Parsley. The trees were set out in accordance with a plan of development which has already been submitted to the County Board of Education by the Holland Nurseries.

The school was then assembled in the hall and an elaborate Arbor Day programme, consisting of recitations and songs, was carried out. The exercises were under the direction of Miss Julia Hill, principal of the school, and were attended by a large body of spectators, composed of parents of the children and other interested persons.

The meeting at the Academy was held at 3:30 o'clock and was attended by quite a number of ladies from Sorosis and other interested citizens, as well as a large number of school children.

Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Grace Methodist church, pronounced the invocation, and this was followed by the singing of "America." Mayor Smith was introduced by Mr. John J. Blair, chairman of the civic committee of Sorosis, and made a short address of welcome. This was followed by an exercise by some of the school children, in which the boys, dressed to represent trees, told of the uses of trees, and the girls, dressed to represent birds, imitated the songs of the feathered ones. The children were from Miss Wood's room, in the fourth grade at the Union school.

Mr. Blair then made a few remarks in which he told of the intention of the children in the public schools to devote their spare time this week to cleaning up the city. Mr. Blair stated that the white school children had purchased 4,374 packages of seeds and the colored school children 683 packages. These will be planted this Spring. He then introduced Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, who made a most interesting talk on civic improvement and its relation to better sanitary conditions and better health. The meeting was brought to a close by the benediction. The music was furnished by the High School orchestra.

Immediately afterwards representatives from the civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the civic committee of Sorosis, the Civic League and others met in the Mayor's office with Mayor Smith and Councilman P. Q. Moore to hear a talk by Mr. P. R. Frost, a landscape architect from Cambridge, Mass., on the question of developing the city property at Greenfield Lake into a public park.

Mr. Frost stated that Wilmington had as fine a site in the property at Greenfield for a public park as any city he had ever seen, and one that could be developed at very little expense. He pointed out that by nature it is almost ready to be used as a park now, all it needed being the construction of walks and driveways and the planting of some shrubbery and flowers.

He spoke of the great development which the city will inevitably undergo, because of its location and resources, and declared that in a short time the present park site would be inside the natural boundaries of the city. Such a park there would not only mean a pleasant recreation ground for thousands of citizens, but would also be the means of developing a high-class residential neighborhood and greatly enhancing real estate values.

Mr. Frost declared that Wilmington is in a favored region where shrubbery and flowers, with comparatively little cultivation, grow with a luxuriance seldom equalled in other parts of the country.

In response to a question from Mayor Smith, Mr. Frost stated that he had not made an estimate of the cost of improving the park, but that the work could be done gradually, and the expense stretched over a period of a number of years.

At the close of his address he exhibited a preliminary sketch of the park property, which however, was prepared only for the purpose of fixing the boundaries and of getting some idea of the general topography of the tract.

Mr. Frost will be here several days yet, and will probably further advise Council with regard to the park proposition.

Governor Praises W. L. I.

In an interview published in yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer, Governor Locke Craig, speaking of his impressions at the inauguration, said in part:

"Our soldiers looked well. The Wilmington company and others made a splendid impression. In my message today I spoke of the fact that they were conspicuously few. But they were admirable and caused commendation from many sides. You never saw men who looked better or made a better impression."

MAY SEE BIG BALL GAME

Wilmington baseball lovers will be glad to hear that again there is some hope of getting a big league baseball game here this month, for as a result of a visit made Sunday by Messrs. Bert Kite and J. W. Blomme to the training quarters of the Philadelphia National League team at Southern Pines, it is not unlikely that that team will play the Baltimore Orioles in this city Thursday, March 20th.

It will be remembered that an effort was made to get the Phillies to play here Saturday, March 22nd, and that arrangements were made for the game, but that the grounds could not be secured because of the fact that the Coast Line team had that date for a game with the team from the University of North Carolina.

However, those who had interested themselves in the matter did not cease their efforts, and Sunday Mr. Blomme and Mr. Kite went to Southern Pines for a personal interview with Mr. Chas. S. Dooin, manager of the Phillies. After talking the matter over Mr. Dooin told them that his team was to play the Baltimore Orioles at Fayetteville, the training ground of the Orioles, on the 18th and 19th of this month, and that the Orioles were then to come to Southern Pines to play the Phillies on the 20th and 21st. However, he stated that he would take the matter up with Mr. Jack Dunn, manager of the Orioles, and see if it could not be arranged to have the two teams meet here on the 20th for a game.

It is a settled fact that a game between these two teams would draw probably the largest crowd that ever witnessed a baseball contest at League Park, and it would no doubt pay the two teams from a financial standpoint. It is to be hoped that the matter can be arranged.

While at Southern Pines Messrs. Kite and Blomme also took up with Mr. Dooin the question of using Wilmington next season as Winter training quarters for the Phillies. They made him a proposition which they had been authorized to submit by a number of interested persons here, and they state that from the information they were able to give him, Mr. Dooin seemed to be very favorably impressed. Wilmington undoubtedly has many advantages to offer a team wishing a training camp, and it in point of climate it is unsurpassed by any city in the State. Mr. Harry Rosenthal, who will be remembered here as a member of the old Seaside baseball team, was at Southern Pines as the guest of the Phillies for a few days, and he also pointed out to Mr. Dooin the advantages of Wilmington.

If the game can be arranged for the 20th it is planned to meet the teams at the station with automobiles and to take them over the city, and to several sites which will be placed at the disposal of the Phillies should they decide to make their Winter quarters here.

Mr. Blomme and Mr. Kite were delighted with the reception they received from the Big Leaguers. Mr. Dooin and members of his team took them over the training ground, golf links and quarters. They stated that there are 35 men in the Phillies squad, and in addition, five newspaper men who accompany the team.

MODERN CREAM FACTORY.

A. G. Warren Co.'s Plant Finest 'Twixt Washington and Atlanta.

"The finest, best and most modern and sanitary between Washington and Atlanta" is the term used to describe the recently completed ice cream manufacturing plant of the A. G. Warren Company, No. 20 North Second street, and the words are true to facts.

The entire building is used by the company, 40x60 feet of floor space. White Portland cement floors and beaver board walls, tinted with mahogany trimmings, and white bitrolite wainscoting 30 inches high, combine to make the place, not only pleasingly fresh and cool to the eye, but clean and sanitary throughout. The entire plant is flushed every morning and thoroughly cleaned and made sanitary to a degree.

The new equipment of the well known company is put in by the Fred W. Wolfe Company, of Chicago, and embraces the Tyson idea of ice making and refrigerating. The engine room is 20x30 feet, equipped with motive machinery for running the eighton refrigerating plant and the ice plant of seven and one-half tons capacity. At zero temperature the storage room for cream and milk is kept, and the same is maintained in the 1,000-gallon capacity storage room for ice cream. Through these rooms are the pipes which carry the freezing brine which keeps the temperature down.

The cream itself is made in a machine lined with German silver, of 300-gallons capacity daily. It is then put in sanitary cans and stored away till called for. It is made without ice, the last word in ice cream manufacture, and is put and absolutely free of any harmful thing. The cans in which it is stored are sterilized by steam.

The company ships quantities into a large surrounding territory, and in addition to its ordinary business, caters with special forms and varieties of ices, to special occasions.

The new plant on Second street is open for public inspection and the management would be delighted to have the public call. The place certainly is a credit to the city, and as stated, is the best between Washington and Atlanta, and by far the biggest in North Carolina.

Architect Furnishes Plans

Mr. H. E. Bonitz, architect of this city, furnishes the plans for the $10,000 Reformed church at Lincolnton, Rev. W. H. McNairy, pastor. It is to be of Gothic design. Mr. Bonitz also furnishes the plans for a new Baptist church at Winnsboro, S. C., also to cost $10,000. This is to be of the Romanesque type. The plans for the new Warren ice cream plant, about which The Star is carrying an item today, were made by Mr. Bonitz.

COCAINED NEGRO RUNS AMUCK

After Insulting White Man on Princess Street, Negro is Arrested and Resists Officers Till Bloodily Clubbed.

Yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock, Cicero Leggitt, a negro employed at the drug store of Jarman & Mintz, riding up Princess street on a bicycle, turned his wheel so close to a typewriter, Mr. O. B. Barnes, agent for the Remington typewriters, had set near the curbing, to talk with W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., that Mr. Barnes remonstrated.

The negro promptly and fluently "cussed" Mr. Barnes, using a variety of profane language so well adjusted and so brilliantly selected as to words, that the speech might well have come from one of those picturesque "cussers" who employ the best of three or more languages.

Mr. Barnes followed the negro as far as the Colonial Inn, where Leggitt left his wheel and departed for Dock street, down which he went towards the wharf. Mr. Barnes then had a warrant issued for Leggitt and within a few moments Deputy Sheriff A. L. Kelly was at the negro's place of employment, awaiting him. He drove up on his wheel, but before reaching his customary dismounting place, fell from it to the ground. The deputy allowed him to get into the store, and then arrested him. Things began to occur then, a la Mexico. Leggitt started a little revolution all his own, for he was crazy with cocaine, as those who saw him testified afterwards. Whiskey wouldn't make a man so crazy, they said. It took three men to put the nippers on him, together with a clubbing from the deputy that brought so much blood from the negro's head that his clothes and those of the deputy were much bespattered. Leggitt looked like a stuck hog.

Held by Deputy Kelly, Patrolman Moore and Mr. "Tuck" Savage, and followed by a crowd that grew as it moved, Leggitt was carried to Justice Harriss' office, where he cursed bountifully and free, being the first man, crazy, drunk or sober, that veterans in criminal cases ever saw who stood in any sort of a court and breathed vengeance against all mankind, including the court itself. He was committed to jail promptly.

In his cell he kept on running amuck, and turned on the water, so that the whole compartment was flooded. He continued to curse and rave, but when a reporter for The Star saw him and asked him what devil possessed him, he calmed down and said very earnestly that all he had taken in his system of any trouble-inspiring nature was a half pint of whiskey yesterday morning, purchased with 45 cents he had won shooting craps. The terrific clubbing he got, he said, had not made itself felt on his head at that time, it being only "jes' a little bit sore." He will be tried this morning at 9 o'clock by Justice Harriss, provided he can navigate. It was the verdict of most who saw the proceedings that the negro was simply full of "coke", the "white dope" that both white and colored victims of cocaine snuff up their nostrils until they become temporarily insane and imbued with the strength of two or three, or more men.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS

Routine Business Chief Matters at Yesterday's Session

The County Board of Education held a session yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, all members present, with Mr. J. O. Carr, chairman, presiding, and Professor Washington Catlett, superintendent of education, in his accustomed place. Auditing accounts consumed the time of the session, though a few other items of business were handled and the board informally talked of plans and the general school situation.

The auditing revealed the fact that at the end of February there was a balance to the credit of the schools of $9,827.65. The totals brought forward showed the February receipts to be $24,624.03, while the expenditures were $14,771.72.

The board was greatly encouraged and not a little surprised by the unusual increase in the enrollment and average attendance of the schools during the past month, the reports showing a very decided increase over the corresponding period in 1912.

The proposed bond issue of $175,000 for the schools came up as a subject for conversation during the session, and the board is very much of the opinion that this is necessary and that the people will sustain them in their belief.

MISS LAURA EVERITT PASSES

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday Evening—The Funeral

Friends will hear with sorrow of the death of Miss Laura Everitt, which occurred at her home, No. 309 MacRae street, last evening at 8:45 o'clock after a critical illness of some days. Miss Everitt was 75 years of age and was well known and much loved by many of the older residents of Wilmington, having resided here for many years. She is survived, of the immediate family, only by her sister, Mrs. A. B. Gillican and Mr. J. A. Everitt, both of this city and county. They have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

IMPROVED STEAMER SERVICE

Clyde Line Yesterday Began New Passenger Service from Wilmington to Georgetown and New York—Cherokee's Trip.

Yesterday for the first time the steamer Cherokee, Clyde Line, lay in Wilmington's harbor as a passenger boat. The fine steamer has been making trips to this port, five or six years, as a freight boat only, on its voyage from New York, via Wilmington, to Georgetown. Although finely equipped for handling passenger traffic, it has not before put on this branch of the service. Consequently its trip this time was its very first as a passenger boat.

The innovation is in the nature of an experiment, and should it turn out satisfactorily, it is very likely that the fine steamer, the Seminole, will make this port also. The addition to the steamer service will be apreciated by the city and its contiguous and tributary territory, and it will be hoped that the venture will prove so profitable to the company that the Seminole will also make Wilmington.

The Cherokee is one of the finest boats of the Clyde Line. She is 310 feet over all and 43 feet beam, and draws 18 feet loaded, though coming up the Cape Fear, on account of less than capacity load, she draws about 15 feet. Sunday night when she came up, she came at low tide, at full speed and docked at 8:15 P. M. Her speed is 18 knots and from Wilmington to New York the trip is made in 48 hours, fare $12.

The steamer is fully equipped with wireless, has two operators and the circuit now is 500 miles, which always keeps her in touch with the coast, and, of course, with relays, she reaches much farther. An improved service will shortly be made, giving a much wider circuit.

There are 28 state rooms, all with windows opening on deck; and 88 berths. The service here is excellent all through. Opening from the state rooms is the social hall, 60 feet in length, furnished handsomely. The dining salon has a capacity of 48 at a sitting, and is elegantly and comfortably furnished and arranged, being forward, where the vibrations and other discomforts of the engines are not felt. The menu is the same as the Jacksonville-Charleston service, which is a standard.

For full protection of life, there are regular fire and boat drills, a full complement of lifeboats and rafts, and none but expert seamen are to be found aboard ship. The decks furnish ample space for promenade and seating.

The schedule of the Cherokee is as follows: Leave New York Friday evening, arrive in Wilmington Sunday evening; leave for Georgetown Monday evening; leaves Georgetown Thursday evening, arriving here Friday morning; leaves Saturday afternoon for New York, arriving Monday afternoon. Business people leaving Wilmington Saturday afternoon, when business is over, take advantage of the Sunday let-up, and get to New York Monday noon, thus "making time," sure enough. The trip to Georgetown requires only about nine hours, and is made with every comfort.

The Cherokee is commanded by Capt. C. W. Devereaux, whose years of service in West Indian waters, especially, have made him a mine of "copy" that would delight any newspaper man. Yesterday he spun a number of yarns that excited the credulity of his four or five hearers, but before he finished, their fears of "fish stories" were relieved. The captain has a block of mahogany taken from the first church built in the New World. It came from San Domingo, where the patron saint of all good United States men, Columbus, first touched the great continent whose vastness he never realized. At San Domingo, Columbus built fortifications and to this day there are traces of his presence. From the churchyard of the church mentioned, Capt. Devereaux unearthed a bronze buckle, on which is embossed the battle axe and helmet of the Spanish soldiers who first visited the New World. The bronze is of a character unknown to metal experts of today, being superior to anything known to moderns. Chief among the captain's stories, however, was the tale about the 'Columbus Tree." At San Domingo there stands, within 20 feet of the water, a hoary trunk as much as 15 feet in diameter at a distance of 15 feet from the ground. Tradition says that Columbus tied his ship up to this tree. The landlubber guests of Capt. Devereaux howled with bended-double glee and laughter held both his sides and then some, at the idea; but the ship's master was in earnest. He had a piece of the very tree, and after he had explained all about the tradition and the size of the tree, evidently the growth of centuries, and protected by the government most jealously, his landlubbers gravely accepted the assertion that the tree is really the Santa Maria tree, of the genus calaba.

Returning to the subject of this new steamship passenger service, its importance should be at once realized by the port and all that country which furnishes traffic for steamer lines out of Wilmington. The service has been provided; if it is used, it will not only be continued, but increased and improved. It is hardly necessary to state that it means a great deal to Wilmington, and that in addition to its direct results, it must be the means of giving impetus to the systematic development of Wilmington's potential resources, the ultimate end of which must inevitably be that this city become chief among Southern seaports. There is already the advantage of having as much water over the bar as Charleston, which is from 30 to 35 feet, and while the Cape Fear does not now furnish the depth of the inside waters at Charleston, it does give an easy depth of 24 feet, and this will be, in the course of time, and with the growth of shipping, still further increased.

The Clyde Line officials stated yesterday that they would only be too glad to put a boat a day into Wilmington "and two on Sunday", if the traffic wanted it.

ANOTHER ROCK DEPOSIT.

Government Expert Finds Stratum on Federal Point.

Yesterday while on a trip of inspection in the southern part of the county, Mr. D. H. Winslow, the United States Superintendent of road construction, who is spending a few days in the county advising on the maintenance and construction of improved roads, discovered a stratum of shell rock reaching from a point near Carolina Beach to the end of Federal Point.

The discovery means much to the county, for it is Mr. Winslow's opinion that the rock is still better adapted to road building than that mined for the purpose from the quarry east of the city. It is harder than the rock found nearer the city and has not reached the same stage of decomposition.

By using this rock the proposed road to Federal Point could be built at very little cost, for the stratum would extend along the side of the road almost all the way. The rock will also prove valuable for other road building in the county.

Recorder's Court Light.

Yesterday's Recorder's court was light for Monday. Among the cases handled were the following: John Robinson, riding a wheel without a light, and violation of driving ordinance, costs in each case; Bush Weaver, not guilty of reckless driving or of assault and battery; James Miler, fighting with Grace McNeill, $5. The woman was not arrested at the time, but was yesterday. Guy Brown, reckless driving, costs; A. J. Kemp, called and failed, capias.

FIVE PER CENT. INCREASE.

A. C. L. Announces Increase for Clerks and Other Employes.

Yesterday it was announced at the office of General Manager W. N. Royall, of the Atlantic Coast Line, that effective March 1st, the clerical forces and some other of the employes of the road would be granted an increase in wages of 5 per cent. This has been expected for some time and there have been rumors ever since the first of the year that the increase would be given. The action of the railroad in this matter is in line with its policy of increasing wages whenever the business of the A. C. L. justifies it. Clerks in the general offices here, very naturally, are pleased by the neat sum each month that the order means.

MR. B. O. STONE IN EXTREMIS.

Difficult Operation for Appendicitis Last Evening—Condition.

Hundreds of friends throughout the city and in this section of the Carolinas where he is well and most favorably known, will regret to know that Mr. B. O. Stone, formerly an alderman of Wilmington and one of its leading and most progressive young business men, is dangerously ill as a result of an acute attack of appendicitis with which he was stricken at his home Friday morning about 1 o'clock. Yesterday Mr. Stone was removed to Harper's Sanitarium, Front and Castle streets, where an operation was concluded shortly after 7 o'clock last evening by Drs. Russell, Harper and J. H. Stone, the latter of Little River, S. C., and a brother of the patient, who came over on account of Mr. Stone's illness. The operation developed that the disease had progressed to a dangerous state before the operation and at 10 o'clock last night, the condition of the patient was anything but favorable. Dr. J. H. Stone and the other surgeons remained with him during the night and while no encouragement is being held out to loved ones, it is stated that the patient has a fighting chance for his life. It is earnestly hoped by a host of friends everywhere that Mr. Stone may recover and be restored to his former good health.

—The liberal offers of $100 in gold each, of Dr. L. B. Sasser, of the Mission Pharmacy, and Mr. Geo. H. Hutaff, of the Coca-Cola Bottling Works, for prizes in the boys' corn-growing contest, having stirred others to contribute until there is a large amount of money now available for prizes, it would seem that some business man interested in the efforts of the girls to form a tomato club, would come to the fore with a handsome sum. It is good advertising for any business.

MRS. HENRY REHDER PASSES

Aged Lady, After Weeks of Illness, Finds Peace at Last

Sweetly fell on sleep Sunday night about midnight, Mrs. Johanna Rehder, widow of Mr. Henry Rehder, who died several weeks ago. The end came quietly and was not unexpected, but this did not suage the grief of three sons when they realized that "mother" was gone from them forever.

Mrs. Rehder was greatly loved by an unusually large number of people. Her character drew them to her. On her arrival in this city from her native land of Germany as a bride, just after the war, in which her husband had fought from beginning to end, she immediately began to create warm friendships and only death put an end —a temporal end—to them. She was 68 years of age and during her long residence in the cty, took active part in numerous meritorious enterprises. She was one of the oldest and most active members of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and for a long time was a valued member of its choir. In the work of the church societies she had a prominent part, being a member of the Dorcas Society and one of those who formed the Mengert Mission Circle. Loving flowers, she established forty years ago the floral business now conducted so successfully by her son, Mr. Will Rehder. And in countless other ways made herself felt on the life of the community.

During her long illness she frequently expressed the hope that she might be spared until after her beloved husband's death, and her wish was granted, for he died before her.

Had they lived until another year, Mr. and Mrs. Rehder would have been able to celebrate their golden wedding, for they had been married 49 years this year. Three sons survive them, fine citizens of the community, being Messrs. John H., C. B., and Will Rehder.

The funeral services will be held this morning at 10:30 from the residence at Ninth and Red Cross streets, and at 11 o'clock from St. Paul's church, and interment will be in Oakdale. Rev. F. B. Claussen, pastor, will conduct the services. The pallbearers will be Messrs. L. Hansen, Clayton Giles, Sr., Wm. Niestlie and A. D. Wessell, honorary; and the active will be Messrs. C. W. Polvogt, John Haar, A. Alligood, H. L. Vollers, F. P. Lamb and A. O. Osborne.

WEEK OF SERVICES.

Celebrated Bible Teachers to be at St. Andrew's.

Beginning Sunday morning, March 16th, a series of services will be held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church each afternoon and evening for the week following, to be conducted by Dr. C. I. Schofield, D. D., Rev. Lewis S. Chafer, both of New York, two of the best known Bible scholars and teachers in the country.

The services Sunday will be at the usual church hours, morning and evening, and thereafter, on week days, the services will be held at 3:30 and 8 P. M. The afternoon meetings will be especially for Christians and will be in the form of Bible studies of scriptural teachings. The evning services will be evangelistic in nature.

Dr. Schofield and Mr. Chafer come here from other cities where they have been very successful in their work. Rev. Mr. Chafer has been here before, as he held services in the First Presbyterian church last Fall. Dr. Schofield has never been to Wilmington before, but is known here as the editor of the special edition of the Bible known as the Schofield Reference Bible. Both men work together with headquarters at 158 Fifth avenue, New York City, where they and their helpers conduct a great Bible school.

Dr. Schofield began his work in Dallas, Texas, where he was discovered by the late evangelist, Dwight L. Moody. Later he moved to Northfield, Mass., where he was pastor of the church connected with the great schools founded there by Mr. Moody. Still later he removed to New York, and established the Schofield Correspondence School of Bible study.

Rev. Mr. Chafer has been doing a good deal of work in the South, but Dr. Schofield is able to give only the month of March to such work. They have held one meeting in Florida, and will come here for the only other meeting they can hold in the South.

This is a great opportunity for Wilmington people to hear these distinguished men in a meeting together and all the people of the city are cordially invited to attend the services.

REHDER—MRS. JOHANNA. Died at midnight, March 9th. Funeral this Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock from home, Ninth and Red Cross street, and 11 o'clock from St. Paul's Lutheran church. Interment in Oakdale cemetery. Friends invited.

AUTO ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Mr. K. C. Sidbury's Car Victim of Cave-in and Runs Amuck

Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock, as he turned from the Whiskey Creek road to the main highway, the bank gave way under the automobile of Mr. K. C. Sidbury and his machine was rendered helpless, though none of its occupants were hurt, and it was not thought that the machine had suffered any injury. Friendly people immediately gave the necessary help to get the machine back in the road, and the car was started again. At the cave-in, however, the steering apparatus had been put out of tune and as a result, when the car was started, it promptly ditched itself and occupants, none of whom sustained any injury, although the accident was such that they might have, especially the small boy of Mr. and Mrs. Sidbury. He was catapulted from his mother's arms into the water of the ditch, whence he was rescued without a scratch, but, as they have it, he had a close shave. The other members of the party were badly shaken up also. In the car were Mr. and Mrs. Sidbury, their child, Mrs. Cornelia Crane, mother of Mrs. Sidbury, and Mrs. E. J. Bunting, 307 Walnut street.

The car itself was damaged, though not extensively, and was repaired at Starkey's garage.

Crowds Out Sunday

Sunday was a soft, balmy, near-Spring day and the people flocked out of doors by the hundreds to take advantage of the mild weather. A large crowd went to Wrightsville Beach in the morning and afternoon, and in the afternoon hundreds walked or rode out to Greenfield Park. Many others contented themselves with long walks or rides about the city. In a few more weeks now Spring will be here for good.

Cottolene

is far superior to lard

Pastry made with Cottolene is smoother in texture, finer-grained and better in flavor than if made from butter or lard.

And Cottolene costs no more than lard, and will go one-third farther than either butter or lard.

There is as much difference between Cottolene and its imitations, as between extra good and very poor butter. Be careful, avoid substitutes.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk — always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

COTTON MARKET IRREGULAR

Complaints of Too Much Rain in the Eastern Belt Offset Bearish Spot Advices—Close Was Steady, Unchanged

New York, March 10.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today, with complaints of too much rain in the Eastern section acting as an offset to bearish spot advices and with the close steady, net one point lower on March, but generally 1 to 3 points higher.

The opening was barely steady, at unchanged prices to a decline of 7 points, and old crop positions sold 6 to 8 points net lower right after the call, while the new crop worked 2 or 3 points below the closing figures of Saturday. Cables were a little better than due, but with private advices indicating rather a more bearish sentiment abroad, they attracted no particular attention and the talk around the local ring reflected very much the same bearish sentiment as had been noted toward the end of last week. At the decline, however, there appeared to be a considerable demand. This was partly in the way of foreign arbitrage business. There was also trade buying to fix prices around 11.75 for May, and some against forward needs in the new crop months. This tended to steady the market and rather active covering by recent Wall Street sellers rallied prices during the middle of the day. The weather map showed heavy rains in the Eastern belt yesterday and the official forecast for continued wet weather led to apprehensions of a delay in planting and probably helped the rally. At any rate, prices sold four or five points above the closing figures of Saturday around midday, representing a rally of 10 or 12 points from the lower level of the morning. After the close of Liverpool trading became less active and fluctuations during the afternoon were irregular, with prices easing off from the best under bearish spot advices from New Orleans and Memphis, but while offerings showed a tendency to increase on rallies, there was an active demand on the decline, and last prices showed recoveries of 6 to 8 points from the lowest. Weakness in the stock market was considered accountable for part of the afternoon selling and bearish sentiment was encouraged by an unfavorable view of financial conditions in Europe.

CHAMPION BREAKS DOWN.

Speedy Finn and Olympic Winner Suffers From "Shin Splints".

New York, March 10.—Hannes Kohlemainen, the Finnish Olympic champion runner, who recently has been breaking records at amateur meets here, has temporarily broken down, according to reports in athletic circles. Constant pounding on board floors at indoor meets has brought about "shin splints", it is understood, and it is feared the speedy "Finn" will not be able to run again for several months.

It was his trouble with shins that caused him to quit after running a few laps of the two mile race at Madison Square Garden last Thursday night.

Neenah, Wis., March 10.—"Jim" Hale, a former well known pugilist, today was found dying of tuberculosis in a hotel. He was penniless and his once great physique had wasted away until he was scarcely more than frame. The State anti-tuberculosis society is caring for him.

STOCKS REACHED LOW LEVEL

Pronounced Weakness Developed in the Market—Strained Financial Conditions Abroad Had a Depressing Effect.

New York, March 10.—Pronounced weakness again developed in the stock market today and new low levels were reached by many important issues. Development of the day served to emphasize the direct effect on this market of strained financial conditions abroad. From Berlin it was reported that as high as 10 per cent. was being bid for loans over the end of the month. Liquidation by Berlin was an unsettling factor. It was estimated that Berlin disposed of nearly 10,000 shares of Canadian Pacific here. London also sold stocks here on a fairly large scale.

Prices of Americans were depressed sharply in London before the opening here and this market followed the lead thus given, with especial weakness in Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific. Canadian Pacific slumped 7⅞; Union Pacific, 3¼; Steel 1⅜, and Reading, 1⅜. The local money market reflected the effect of the loss of gold, with the probability of further large exports this week. Both time and call funds were firmer. Foreign exchange held strong.

Wall Street received cheering news today in Governor Sulzer's decision to abandon the bill for doubling the stock transfer tax but the announcement had little or no effect on prices. The only other development of the day in which the Street was particularly interested was publication of the United States Steel figures, showing a falling off in unfilled tonnage for February of 170,000 tons. Considering the fact that February contained three days fewer than January, the statement was not regarded as a disappointing one.

Bonds were weak, with losses running from 1 to 2 points in some cases. Total sales, par value, $2,050,000. United States 4s, coupon, declined ⅛ on call. Total stock sales, 466,200 shares.

A PERSONAL GUARANTEE.

Manager Schloss Strongly Recommends Dustin Farnum.

In order to insure, if possible, a big audience for Mr. Dustin Farnum, the noted actor, who will appear in Wilmington for the first time Thursday night, Manager S. A. Schloss yesterday issued the following personal guarantee of the attraction:

"It is with pleasure that I announce the appearance here of the distinguished actor, Mr. Dustin Farnum, in A. H. Woods' magnificent production of 'The Littlest Rebel', at the Academy of Music, Thursday evening, March 13th. The play is one of intense interest, peculiarly fascinating to the South. The undersigned witnessed this performance by Mr. Farnum and his superb supporting company at the Liberty Theatre, New York City, last Winter, and unhesitatingly assures the Academy patrons that the company is one rarely seen in one-night stands. The star, company and production are coming to us intact.

"Seat sale begins at Plummer's Tuesday morning.

"Respectfully,

"S. A. SCHLOSS."

YOUNG SKATER BADLY HURT

Master Charles Roberts Sustains Compound Fracture of Leg

Saturday night about 8:45, Master Charles Roberts, small son of Mr. C. J. Roberts, No. 720 Market street, while skating met with an accident in which he suffered a compound fracture of the bones in his leg, the bones being badly splintered. Sunday morning he was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where the bones were reset and wired, and last night in response to inquiry, Mr. Roberts said that the unlucky lad was getting along nicely.

It seems that the boy was skating behind an automobile on Market street, and darted out suddenly, meeting in head-on collision a bicycle The shock was violent and resulted as stated.

The accident calls to mind the very many instances of young skaters catching hold of moving vehicles of all kinds and allowing themselves to be pulled along, sometimes at a high rate of speed. This is against the city laws but the officers can't enforce them in all cases because of the hundreds of skaters all over the city.

A Resident Known to All Our Readers Relates an Experience

Readers of The Star have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proved kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experiences told are not those of unknown persons, living far away. The cases are Wilmington cases, told by Wilmington people.

Mrs. W. W. Mintz, 712 Vollers St., Washington, N. C., says: "For a long time kidney trouble clung to me and I was caused great annoyance by the kidney secretions. My back ached and I did not seem able to get a minute's peace. Some days I was hardly able to move around to do my work. At last I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Bellamy's Drug Store, and they restored me to good health. I can still speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them as being good for kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SUFFRAGE PROBE GOES ON.

Senate Committee Resumes Inquiry Into Disorder in Washington.

Washington, March 10.—With a long list of witnesses still to be called the Senate sub-committee today resumed its investigation of the disorder that attended the parade of women suffragists here last Monday. The large committee room was again crowded to the doors with spectators, principally women.

Miss Janet E. Richards, who marched in the first section of the parade, declared "most of the policemen were standing idly around in the crowd, and seemed in sympathy with the mob's spirit."

"How was this mob's spirit evidenced?" asked Senator Chamberlain.

"By the hooting and jeering and yelling of the crowd," replied Miss Richards. All along the line men in the crowd shouted, 'These are nothing but hens, we came to see chickens'."

Miss Richards gave the numbers of two of a group of four policemen who she said were doing nothing to control the crowd and whom she urged to help her open up the line.

Police Chief Sylvester furnished a statement to show that he had 575 officers on duty for the suffrage parade and 367 for the inaugural parade the day following. There were no disorders on March 4th.

"What were your feelings about this parade?" asked Chairman Jones, of Chief Sylvester.

"I was always friendly to it. I never opposed it—I was in sympathy with the plan", replied Sylvester. He denied indignantly that he had ever said or done anything that would have given the "men lower down" the idea that the orders for protecting the parade were not to be taken seriously."

The investigation was continued until tomorrow.

MARBLE CONFIRMED.

Senate Holds Brief Executive Session. Nominations to Committee.

Washington, March 10.—After a brief executive session, in which the nomination of John H. Marble to be a member of the Inter-State Commerce Commission was confirmed and the nominations made today by President Wilson were referred to committee, the Senate adjourned until Tuesday at 2 P. M. Organization work today held the attention of Democratic and Republican members. The Democratic steering committee granted the request of the Republican caucus for such an increase of membership of the important committees as will avoid the necessity of removing any of the Republicans. Finance, Foreign Relations and Judiciary were enlarged from 15 to 17 members and the Committee on Rules from eight to ten members. These changes will also give the Democrats increased representation.

WILSON'S NOMINATIONS.

Several Names Are Sent to Senate for Confirmation.

Washington, March 10.—Nominations sent to the Senate today by President Wilson included:

First Assistant Postmaster General, Daniel C. Roper, of South Carolina.

Third Assistant Postmaster General, Alexander M. Dockery, of Missouri.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, James I. Blakeslee, of Pennsylvania.

United States judge, District of Porto Rico, Peter J. Hamilton, of Alabama.

Commissioner of Labor Statistics, Charles P. Neill, of the District of Columbia.

I am your nervy friend,

T. L. RUTH.

WILMINGTON STAR CO.

DOINGS IN BURGAW

Personal and General Items of Interest From Pender Capital.

Burgaw, N. C., March 8.—With the increase in the production of cotton in this section and the quantity sold here during the season, the need of an official weigher has been felt and the present Legislature has been asked to provide one.

Rev. W. P. M. Currie, who has been assisting the pastor, Rev. Mr. Clarke, in the evangelistic work at Pike church this week, was called away Friday to preach a funeral at or near Magnolia. The Methodist revival closed Thursday evening, Rev. Mr. Barnes returning to his home at Smithfield Friday morning. While here he preached some very able sermons.

C. E. McCullen, Esq., visited Raleigh the past week on business before the Supreme Court.

His many friends here and elsewhere will be pleased to note that Gov. Craig has honored Mr. A. B. Croom, Jr., with appointment as a delegate to the National Drainage Congress, at St. Louis, Mo., which meets April 10th to 12th.

The news has reached here of the marriage of a former Pender county boy, R. P. Paddison, Jr., youngest son of Capt. R. P. Paddison, of Point Caswell, at West Palm Beach, Fla., on February 18th, 1913. Mr. Paddison has been engaged in the lumber business at that point for some years.

Mr. J. A. Lanier, of the Maple Hill section, returned from Washington City Friday morning. He went to see the President inaugurated, and says it was certainly a big time.

Miss Douglass Hand returned from Newbern Wednesday evening. — Mrs. E. McMore and Miss Maggie Murphy have returned from Asheville, where they spent a week visiting their brother, Hon. J. D. Murphy.

Messrs. Humphrey Bros., of Bannerman's Bridge, have purchased from the Pender Auto. Co. a five-passenger Ford car.

Mrs. D. F. Herring, who has been visiting her father's family here for several weeks, returned to her home in Georgetown, S. C., this week.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Collins left Wednesday morning to visit friends and relatives in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. They expect to be away a couple of weeks.

There were regular services at St. Mary's Episcopal church here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and again in the evening at 7:30. On Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 there will be illustrated lectures, an electrical stereopticon being used. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs, of Wilmington, was here Thursday for a day's hunt.—Mrs. J. Ross McNeill, after spending a few days with her parents in Norfolk, returned the past week.—Mrs. G. G. Southerland, of Ocala, Fla., arrived a few days ago, to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. C. R. Yopp.

The play which was to have been given some time ago but postponed on account of the weather, will be given at the Court House next Friday evening, March 4th.

Mr. W. W. Perry, who has been visiting his old home at Salisbury, Del., returned to Burgaw Friday.

It is a pity the Legislature defeated the re-assessment bill; such a measure would have been a great benefit; property ought to be assessed at its true value and the rate reduced. That member from Surry county who stated that property was now assessed at 90 per cent of its value, didn't know what he was talking about, as it certainly is not valued at more than 50 per cent as a rule. Taxes are bound to be higher.

It is possible that Pender may have a candidate for the new judgeship. The name of J. T. Bland, Esq., of the Pender bar, has been mentioned in this connection and his friends would be very glad to see this honor bestowed on him.

PLANS COUNTRY-WIDE TRIP.

Josephus Daniels Will Visit All the Navy Yards and Stations.

Washington, March 10.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels is making plans to visit all the navy yards and stations in the country. After attending the Spring target practice of the Atlantic fleet, beginning March 22nd, the secretary will go to the Charleston, S. C., yard to look over preparations for the construction of a new pier, and if possible this trip will be extended to include all the Atlantic and Gulf coast stations. He expects to visit the Pacific coast during the Summer.

The many uses of GOLD DUST

If you were to use for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that has the virtues of all and the faults of none. Use Gold Dust and you have no need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naptha.

You can buy a large package of Gold Dust for 5 cents.

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PERFECT TEETH are the exception rather than the rule. Yet this should not be so. If children's teeth were looked after more generally there would be less dental trouble in adults.

BRING YOUR CHILDREN HERE and have their teeth attended to. Because they don't complain of toothache is no sign their teeth do not need looking after. Do better by your children than your parents did by you. Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty.

Have the Right Backing

IN THIS DAY OF TREMENDOUS BUSINESS ACTIVITY it takes a strenuous man to keep the pace. In order to kep it at all, his business must rest on a solid foundation, and his organization must be near to perfection. The first principle in the organization of a business is a proper banking connection. It is a matter of pride with us that nearly all of our depositors are prospering, and we believe that the banking service which we have been able to furnish them has proved of great assistance. The same service is open to other business men in this community who are not now customers.
